

2nd Annual “Title and Off-title Searching” CLE webcast on www.bar-ex.com

In today's heated real estate market, busy real estate practitioners need fast and focused analysis of the latest title and off-title searching developments affecting their practice. Using valuable checklists and case studies, senior practitioners will explain how to search for access when a boundary problem might form a cloud on title, when standard title insurance might not be enough, and what searches you should undertake to protect yourself and your client.
