September 30:
National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

July 29, 2021

On June 3, 2021, Bill C-5 received royal assent creating a new holiday, the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, on September 30th of every year. This new holiday only applies to federally regulated employers that are subject to the Canada Labour Code. The Land Registry Office is not a federally regulated employer that is subject to the Canada Labour Code.

Accordingly, the Land Registry Office and the Teraview® system will be up and running for registrations on September 30, 2021, which means that closings can be scheduled for that day (although funding might be another issue if the relevant financial institutions are federally regulated employers that are subject to the Canada Labour Code).

Provided below is an URL at which you can find the Teraview® 2021 Holiday Schedule. You can confirm all the holidays on which Teraview® system will be unavailable for registration. This schedule is kept current and is available as a printable PDF.
